The Oxford Movement: A Thematic History of the Tractarians and Their Times

By C. Brad Faught

Pennsylvania State University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Oxford Movement: A Thematic History of the Tractarians and Their Times, C. Brad Faught, Well over a century and a half after its high point, the Oxford Movement continues to stand out as a powerful example of religion in action. Led by four young Oxford dons- John Henry Newman, John Keble, Richard Hurrell Froude, and Edward Pusey- this renewal movement within the Church of England was a central event in the political, religious, and social life of the early Victorian era. Beginning formally in 1833 with Keble's famous "National Apostasy" sermon and lasting until 1845, when Newman made his celebrated conversion to Roman Catholicism, the Oxford Movement posed deep and far-reaching questions about the relationship between Church and State, the Catholic heritage of the Church of England, and the Church's social responsibility, especially in the new industrial society. This book offers an up-to-date and highly accessible overview of the Oxford Movement. C. Brad Faught highlights five key areas in which the movement affected English society more broadly- politics, religion and theology, friendship, society, and missions. The advantage of this thematic approach is that it illuminates the frequently overlooked wider political, social, and...
