The boys forgot, however, that although I might try to conceal my pain, I could not conceal the pallor of my face, which told plainly enough that I was suffering. The head master saw my distressed face in a moment, and came over very thoughtfully and asked the cause of my illness. I told him I thought if I lay down for an hour or so I should be better, and he immediately ordered Redfern to take me back to my room. This was most welcome. I hope you don't think I m...
