Total Pardon: An Extraordinary Love Story

By Wil and Linda Yazzie

Cowcatcher Publications. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 232 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.2in. x 0.5in. Why would a squeaky clean, evangelical Christian woman from Ohio fall madly in love with a hopeless alcoholic Native American ex-con with the last known address of Skid Row, USA? Her idyllic childhood was plagued by illness, yet filled with unconditional love and support. His childhood was splintered by divorce, plagued by poverty, fueled by superstition and filled with disappointment. Two individuals could not be more different, yet Wil Yazzie and Linda Amyx married each other not once but twice. An inmate who starts out as a pen pal and ends up as a husband—there's a lot that could go wrong in that situation. Strangers who become lovers because they bared their souls to one another in a string of me-then-you, you-then-me chain letters. . . come on! It's completely romantic, or it's a scam. The notion of falling in love through letter writing is sketchy territory, but in Wil and Linda's case, it turned out to be sacred territory. What began as a casual voyeuristic peek into another person's life turned into an unpredictable mixture of extreme heartache and extraordinary blessing. When two people find unexpected tenderness, vulnerability...
