THE MARKET

Whitechapel Gallery. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Market, Natasha Degen, The sway of transnational markets over all aspects of contemporary culture has transformed the environment of recent art, blurring the previously discrete realms of price and value, capital and creativity. Artists in turn have responded, not only critically but imaginatively, to the many issues this raises, such as the treatment of artworks as analogous to capital goods, the assertion that art's value is best measured by the market,...
