The boundaries of the Exhibition are: South, Elm Avenue, from Forty-first to Fifty-second streets; West, the Park drive to George s Hill, with the Concourse; North, Belmont drive from George s Hill to the foot of Belmont; and East, Lansdowne drive from Belmont to Forty first-street. The whole of the Exhibition being enclosed, thirteen entrances have been established along the boundary drive, which it has been suggested might appropriately be named in honor of the thirteen original States. Economy and adaptability of the territory have been the guiding points in the selection of the various locations. The main line of connection between the buildings are straight and correct; and, for the still greater convenience of visitors, it is proposed to have cars running on the same. The meadow ground between the main avenues, reserved for private exhibition building, will be treated in regular Park style, with walks and planting, to unite the whole into a handsome picture. Lakes and fountains, fine rare specimens of trees and shrubs, statuary and vases, etc., will be added to the ornamentation. The Exhibition Buildings proper are five in number, and occupy about 60 acres, at the foot of George s Hill, in the West Park. Two hundred and thirty acres have been enclosed for the purposes of the Exhibition. Thirteen ornamental edifices will be erected by the...
