Gen. Jackson on the Subject of the Arrest of Captain Obed Wright Sir, You will no doubt have been informed by general Jackson, ere this reaches you, of an unfortunate attack, recently made, by a detachment of Georgia militia, under the command of captain Obed Wright, on a village in the Creek Nation of Indians, situated on the west side of Flint River, generally known by the name of Chehaw. In order to bring the circumstance of this transaction fully before you, I must beg leave to refer you to a copy of a letter written, by myself to general Jackson, (herewith enclosed) by which you will perceive, that, soon after the army entered the Nation, and passed Fort Early, the Indians in that neighborhood, especially from two towns, situated on the east side of Flint River, generally denominated, Hopaunees, and Philemmees, from chiefs of that name, had recommenced their depredations on our frontier. After...
