Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Reviews It s good, very good! Peter Ashby FRSA, Consultant. I read the first few chapters of Margaret and Dorothy in Conversation last night and enjoyed it - on a number of levels: the well-told and absorbing story of a developing relationship; the lesser-known biographical details (well, lesser known to me anyway); the content of the discussions -fundamental opposing political ideas discussed intelligently and without rancour. D Arcy Vallance, Author and ELT Consultant Really enjoyed the book. The subject matter is fascinating, whetted my appetite to read more . haven t read anything on Margaret (the blood might boil!) and limited stuff on Dorothy. Most of the subjects are still with us and contentious like the social issues of gender, bringing up children, education and women s equal place in society, the morality of science. Bjorn Runngren.
