CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 198 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. Southern mom, Annette Bridges, is the author of a series of books that share helpful, instructive, light-hearted, inspirational messages. Annette wrote The Queen of Damn Good Advice to provide a wealth of wisdom and inspiration for daughters heading off to college and going for their goals. She even offers suggestions for those preparing for marriage or struggling with divorce or other drama. In short, this book empowers daughters and lives up to the subtitle: A savvy mom helps daughters command and rule their life! PRAISE FOR THE QUEEN OF DAMN GOOD ADVICE A delightful follow-up to The Gospel According to Mama, I found this book full of damned good advice for those days I'm the queen. . . and the many I still feel like the princess. . . and many reminders of conversations I should have with the two princesses in my realm as they struggle onward. It would make a great addition to any book club reading list, especially those that cherish spirituality and the teachings of the Bible. Meg Welch Dendler, author of Why Kimba Saved The World and mother of two teenage daughters Annette Bridges conversational tone is like coffee and a chat with a wise, caring friend. Though written for mothers and daughters, The Queen of Damn Good Advice is for anyone with a spiritual nature who wants to live a fulfilling life and stop energy leaks that affect us all. Spiritual rather than religious, I felt Bridges use of Bible quotes enhanced the writing, without being preachy. The more I read, the more I looked forward to continuing on. Joyce Shafer, Life Empowerment Coach; publisher of the online newsletter, State of Appreciation; and...
